Do you have a few minutes to talk?

Yes

Do you have a couple moments for a call?

Just tried you. I am available at your convenience.

Yesterday was a tough day for both of us. I am available to talk at your convenience about next steps.

Yes, and I'm sorry about what happened. We were under so much pressure, as you know. I feel I didn't help socialize the Regents more. We are working on a couple of things and are planning to see if you, Jess, Amy and myself to talk about

Yes, and I'm sorry about what happened. We were under so much pressure, as you know. I feel I didn't help socialize the Regents more. We are working on a couple of things and are planning to see if you, Jess, Amy and myself to talk about the possibilities. I believe there is a path.
I want to add that I have the utmost respect for you and the incredible job you are doing.

Thanks. I will sit tight then until I hear from you.

I hope you are hanging in there. We are certainly living the proverbial "interesting" times.
Is there any chance we can talk in advance of the meeting today?

Of course. Are you free in 10 minutes?

Feel free to txt me when you have a moment.

Sorry. Just finished a meeting. Would now work for you?

Yes
